

Name	Veronika Richterova
Born / died	1964—present
Nationality	Czech Republic
Style	3D recycled material sculptures
Media	Plastic bottles

Vocabulary:

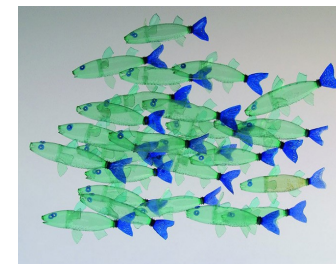

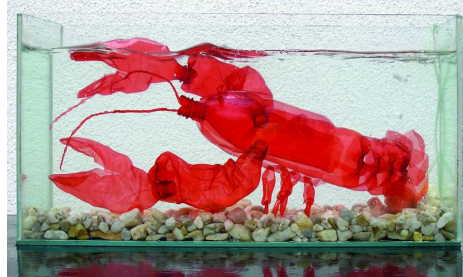

Topic related vocabulary:

subject	the person or thing being dealt with
recycled	for material to be made into something else
installation	created for a specific space and may be permanent or temporary, with temporary installations experienced primarily through documentation

Facts about the artist:

- Veronika studied art at school in Czech Republic and college in Paris. France
- Veronika found out by chance, that plastic bottles could be deformed by heat, so she decided to create a sculpture from this material. Immediately, she had the idea to experiment with. She didn't anticipate that plastic bottles would become such an obsession for her for many years.
- Since 2004 she has used thousands of bottles and has created hundreds of objects.
- Since 2007 she has collected bottles and created a PET-ART museum. So far she has collected over 3500 bottles from 79 countries around the world.

Famous pieces:

Born 1881 Pablo Picasso 	Born 1883 Jean Metzinger 	Born 1964 Veronika Richterova
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------